

COVID-19

Verbiage for Syllabus - Student Conduct Code

During the COVID-19 pandemic, our top priority is the health and safety of our Kauhale. We each have kuleana to one another to abide by federal, state, county and university COVID-19 related requirements and guidelines.

The University of Hawai'i and Hawai'i Community College has established expectations for students, staff, faculty and visitors interacting on campuses during the COVID-19 pandemic. Please familiarize yourself with these expectations by reviewing the information provided here:

- Hawai'i Community College COVID-19 Guidelines
- Required Prevention Measures

Related to COVID-19, you are required to

- Prior to coming to campus, complete a daily check-in using the LumiSight UH app
- When on campus, wear a face covering unless working or studying in isolation, and unless unable to do so due a health or medical condition
- Notify Dorinna Cortez, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs at hawcovid@hawaii.edu if you
 - test positive for COVID-19
 - are exposed to an individual who tests positive for COVID-19
 - travel off-island and are subject to quarantine restrictions

Failure to comply with federal, state, and Hawai'i Community College guidelines and requirements, may be a violation of the University of Hawai'i Student Conduct Code and will be addressed through our Administrative Procedures. Please familiarize yourself with the behavior expectations outlined in the Student Conduct Code and the procedures we will follow when the code is allegedly violated.
