

Courses Fulfilling Two Different
General Education Requirements

Background:

The College's practices in this area were reviewed by the Academic Senate in Fall 2002. The Senate's recommendations were submitted on November 1, 2002.

Policy:

Students completing a course that fulfills more than one General Education requirement may only receive credit toward one General Education requirement. They may select which requirement is satisfied and will be expected to fulfill the other requirement(s) with other courses.
